

Photos by MONICA HERNDON | Times

PI DAY FUN WITH CREAM ON TOP

What's better than eating pies? Throwing them! These kids learned that Tuesday on Pi Day, the annual celebration of the famed irrational number 3.14. After donning protective gear at the Glazer Children's Museum in Tampa, they tossed pans of shaving cream at one another. Above, Tyler Purgeson, 6, can barely see. At right, Daniel Haupt gets an assist from his mom, Alison.

