The Glazer Children’s Museum Named Top Children’s Museum in the USA

TAMPA, FL - January 21, 2015 - The Glazer Children’s Museum was recently named one of the top children’s museums in the Nation, by Tripping.com.

Earning its ranking as number 6, the Glazer Children’s Museum is proud to be among the top tier of its peers after just five years of opening its doors. Opening in 2010 in Downtown Tampa, the Museum has welcomed a total of one million visitors since opening day. It continues to attract thousands of visitors annually as it’s one of the very few places in the Bay area where children can master math, science, and reading skills through the power of play.

“It truly is an honor for the Glazer Children’s Museum to be recognized as a top educational resource among the nation’s elite museums,” said Board Chair Ian Smith. “The Museum serves as a resource for the community, and through enhanced visitor experiences, exhibits and programs, we are encouraging young children to learn about and explore the world around them.”

The mission of the Glazer Children’s Museum is to create learning environments where children play, discover, and connect to the world around them to develop as lifelong learners and leaders. Along with 170 interactive exhibits within 17 themed areas, the Glazer Children’s Museum reinforces learning with our daily programming and educational events for all children.
