

Glazer Children's Museum

The Imagination Society was created as a part of our efforts to meet the greatest needs at the Glazer Children's Museum. As a nonprofit organization, the Museum depends on contributions from donors like you to educate and inspire Tampa Bay's children through unique museum experiences and programming like design thinking, reading, engineering, arts and architecture, math and making. The Imagination Society aims to recruit an exceptional group of patrons whose unrestricted support helps to fulfill our mission.
