

This song is a GCM favorite because it can simply go on and on and is great for imaginative fun and just all-around silliness. For each new verse, all you have to do to change it is substitute three new words- two nouns and verb. The two nouns have to rhyme. Usually, it's an animal, an action word, and an object (Did you ever see a snake, baking a cake?)

C G7

(Down by the bay), where the watermelons grow

G7 C

Back to my home, I dare not go

F C

For if I do, my mother would say,

"Did you ever see a (animal), (verb)ing a (object),"

G7 C

Down by the bay?" (Down by the bay)

Did you ever see a frog walking his dog

Did you ever see a fox hiding in a box

Did you ever see a fish, do a hula in a dish

Did you ever see a duck in a pickup truck

Did you ever see a bee with a sunburnt knee

Did you ever see a cat, wearing a hat

Did you ever see an ant, climbing a plant

Did you ever see a whale with a polka dot tail

Did you ever see a bear, combing his hair

Did you ever see a mouse building a house

Did you ever see llamas eating their pajamas

Did you ever see a fly, wearing a tie

Did you ever see a goose, kissing a moose

Did you ever see a goat, standing in a boat
