

Glazer Children's Museum

JOB DESCRIPTION

Teen Play Leader - Volunteer

Summer Cohort (May 30–August 5, 2022)

Position Summary:

Teen Play Leaders have a passion for learning and playing. The primary responsibility of Teen Play Leaders is to support the educational experience on the museum floor. Teen Play Leaders will greet guests and answer their questions, play with groups and families, assist with preparing and delivering educational programs, and help reset and care for exhibits. Teen Play Leaders will participate in opportunities that train them for future careers in museums, nonprofits, and/or education.

This is a volunteer position, requiring weekend availability. This is a front-facing position, which requires guest interaction. Teen Play Leaders report to the Director of Education and the Manager of Program Team and Delivery.

Essential Functions:

- Provide guests with an exceptional guest experience by supporting learning and play in exhibit spaces and educational programs.
- Assist museum educators with the delivery of educational programs.
- Support with preparation of educational programs, including assistance with clerical/office work.
- Assist with setting up, resetting, and cleaning museum exhibits and spaces.
- Create and maintain a high level of energy and dedication to guest experience with children, groups, and families.
- Maintain a high level of professionalism, including being reliable and punctual, collaborating with teammates, and asking questions when necessary.

Requirements:

- Must be at least 14 years old.
- Must commit to at least 100 hours of service, per semester.

Experience/Skills:

- Comfort in interacting with a variety of people.
- Experience and/or interest in working with young children and their families.
- Interest in science, technology, engineering, arts, mathematics, or literacy.
- Perform well in a high-paced, noisy environment.