

EXECUTIVE SEARCH – CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

ABOUT THE GLAZER CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Mission

The mission of the Glazer Children's Museum is to create a learning laboratory where children play, discover, and connect with the world around them to develop as lifelong learners and leaders. At Glazer Children's Museum, families of all backgrounds and abilities come together in an interactive learning environment that encourages children to play with purpose.

History

Glazer Children's Museum's history dates back to the 1965 opening of Safety Village in Lowry Park and has grown over the years, just like children do. Since the opening of their new location in 2010, GCM has been a landmark in Downtown Tampa, serving 230,000+ guests throughout our 53,000 sq. ft. building. And over the course of a decade, GCM has become an integral part of the cultural corridor of museums, libraries, theaters, and performing arts centers in Tampa Bay.

Funding

As a nonprofit organization, the Glazer Children's Museum relies on private support and donations to provide hands-on learning experiences for Tampa Bay area families. Our funding comes 60% through admissions and special program revenue and needs 40% to come through charitable donations.

CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

The Glazer Children's Museum is seeking a Chief Development Officer (CDO) that will be responsible for leading the design, strategic leadership, management and execution of all fundraising activities for the Glazer Children's Museum, including: individual, corporate, foundation and public giving, fundraising events, capital needs and planning for long term sustainability. The CDO will need to possess a proven track record of leading a team of fundraising professionals and managing a diverse, multi-million-dollar portfolio of donor partners. The ideal candidate will have experience as an authentic champion for the Museum's mission and dedicated relationship and consensus builder.
